RE: New Haven teletype to Bureau, dated 7/30/71.
Buffalo telephone call to New Haven, dated 9/28/71.

Referenced teletype sets forth on Page 2 that in order to resolve question positively, Xerox was being requested to obtain samples from Xerox Copier 914, Serial Number 094-080205.

Referenced telephone call, Buffalo advised that they have approximately 50 copies obtained from the above xerox machine, and upon completion of examination by Buffalo, they will be forwarded to the FBI Laboratory.

In view of the above and UACB, Xerox will be advised that additional copies are not necessary.

Washington Field Office should contact Department of Defense, Washington, D. C. and handle the above documents in accordance with instructions set out in referenced airtel.

[redacted] Rand Corporation, advised [redacted] on 9/29/71 that in addition to the above documents Department of Defense representatives recently picked up several documents in connection with this matter and returned them to the Department of Defense, Washington, D. C. He advised that he does not know what these documents actually relate to but he will obtain a description and identification of these documents and furnish this to the Los Angeles Office.

Referenced airtel instructed Los Angeles to obtain pertinent classified documents charged out or known to have been in the possession of ELLSBERG. [redacted] every original document and copies of documents pertinent to Vietnam have been returned to the Department of Defense. This would include those to which ELLSBERG had access or possession of while at Rand Corporation, Santa Monica, as well as all other pertinent documents.

[redacted] it is the policy of the Rand Corporation not to allow original documents to leave their possession, however, they will allow the originals to be reproduced [redacted] riginal documents can be requested and will be made available by the proper official when needed for testimony.

Referenced airtel also instructed Los Angeles and Washington Field to designate all classified documents to which ELLSBERG had access or partial access at Rand, Santa Monica, with Los Angeles exhibit numbers. The following suggestion is offered for consideration:

It is noted that all the known documents at the present time to which ELLSBERG had access, including the "McNamara Study" and the "Simons" papers have been returned to the Department of Defense. In order to avoid duplication of exhibit numbers it is suggested that inasmuch as all of the above classified documents are in the custody of the Department of Defense, that Washington Field assign exhibit numbers beginning with LA #1 (WA), LA #2 (WA) etc.

Los Angeles therefore will designate exhibit numbers beginning with LA #1, LA #2, etc.

Since Los Angeles has no way of determining at this time the number of exhibits of Washington Field and/or Los Angeles, it is felt that the above method will avoid confusion and possible duplication.

Bureau comments requested.

Los Angeles is continuing investigation as instructed in referenced airtel.

ReLAairtel 9/29/71.

Bureau feels that Los Angeles suggestion that certain Rand, Santa Monica, exhibits being accumulated by WFO for Los Angeles be designated as LA #1 (WA) and etc., should not be followed as adoption would lend itself to possible unnecessary work and error.

Bureau notes that in spite of the fact that Department of Defense (DOD) has in many instances removed pertinent documents from Rand, Santa Monica, to Washington, D.C., Los Angeles is in possession of inventory of all classified documents known to have been in the custody of Ellsberg or to which he had access while he was at Rand, Santa Monica. Also, Los Angeles is able, as set out in referenced airtel, page 3, paragraph 2, to obtain lists of necessary support documents to the classified documents, which in some instances have been returned to Washington, D.C., by DOD. Since Los Angeles is able to identify the documents necessary and, most importantly, is in the best position to select Rand, Santa Monica, documents which may be evidence in this case, Los Angeles should assign the appropriate exhibit numbers.

Re: MC LEK

Los Angeles should immediately assign exhibit numbers to pertinent Rand, Santa Monica, documents needed as evidence in this case and set out appropriate leads to WFO to secure necessary data relative thereto in accordance with instructions in Bureau airtel of 9/20/71.

NOTE:

Bureau, in Bureau airtel 9/20/71, cited the need for Los Angeles and WFO to commence identifying and securing original documents of evidentiary nature relative to the prosecution of Ellsberg. These offices were instructed to assign either Los Angeles or WFO exhibit numbers to each piece of evidence, dependent upon where the document was located. An exception was made in the case of certain Rand, Santa Monica, documents which had been returned to Washington, D.C., by DOD in that these documents were to be given Los Angeles exhibit numbers to assure uniformity. Los Angeles, in referenced Los Angeles airtel, suggested that where the Rand, Santa Monica, documents were now in Washington, D.C., that WFO assign exhibit numbers as LA #1 (WA) and etc. For reasons cited, suggestion of Los Angeles should not be followed.

Prior investigation has revealed that subsequent to the printing of articles by "The New York Times" concerning United States - Vietnam relations in its issues of June 13 through June 15, 1971, similar articles appeared in other newspapers, including the "Miami Herald," a publication of Knight Newspapers, Incorporated.

Investigation to determine how and when newspapers other than "The New York Times" obtained the information on which the articles were based has indicated that copies of the so-called "Pentagon papers" may have been furnished to representatives of the newspapers in the Boston or Cambridge, Massachusetts, area during the latter part of June, 1971.

that at a press conference on June 23, 1971, Leonard Boudin and Charles Nesson identified themselves as attorneys for Daniel Ellsberg.

In view of the apparent telephonic contact between Nesson and the Knight Newspapers, Incorporated, the possibility exists that Nesson was involved in some manner in the distribution of copies of the "Pentagon papers" to newspaper representatives. In this regard, any wide dissemination and subsequent printing of the "Pentagon papers" by other newspapers could have served to minimize the act of prior disclosure of the information to "The New York Times" by Ellsberg.

Inasmuch as Nesson is an attorney for Ellsberg, no attempt is being made by this Bureau to obtain toll call records on the telephones listed to Nesson at his residence or any of his offices. In the event the Department decides to have subpoenas issued for the purpose of obtaining such toll call records in an effort to determine if Nesson was in frequent contact with the Washington, D. C., bureaus of any of the newspapers involved, it is requested that this Bureau be advised.

NOTE:

We previously received similar information relative to a telephone call made by [redacted] for Daniel Ellsberg, who was in contact with a representative of the Washington bureau of the "Los Angeles Times" during 6/71. This information was furnished to Department and the Department subsequently issued a subpoena to obtain toll call information regarding [redacted] In view of the previous action by the Department in this regard, the information concerning the telephone call made by Nesson is being brought to the Department's attention.

Examination desired would determine, if possible, number of generations material used by Sheehans was from original, believed to have been reproduced by Daniel Ellsberg on Xerox 914 machine in office of Lynda Sinay in Los Angeles in 10/69. Examination would also determine whether drum characteristics resulting from reproduction on Sinay machine would appear on copies obtained from Savin machine used by Sheehans. SUMMARY 10/2/71

Attached reports circumstances under which Anthony Russo has been released from prison where he was being held in contempt for refusal to testify before a Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles. After his release Russo left Los Angeles with Daniel Ellsberg and a reporter of "The New York Times" for Chicago. Chicago Office was instructed earlier to be alert for public appearances by Russo or Ellsberg and to attempt through sources to ascertain reason for travel to Chicago.

It will be recalled that Identification Division has postively identified Russo's finger prints as being on portions of the "Pentagon Papers" held by Ellsberg and allegedly leaked to the news media. Russo had no authorized access to these documents. When initially called to testify, Russo was the object of a grant of immunity which the U.S. Government now plans to abandon.

A copy of attached has been furnished to the Assistant Attorney General-Internal Security Division and pertinent portions of the information will be included in our weekly summary to the White House and the Attorney General.

SUBJECT: MC LEK
SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS OFFICE (SIO)

Memorandum is to seek approval for interviews of news media personnel attached to Washington, D. C., offices of papers publishing portions of "Pentagon papers." Airtel attached for WFO.

Background:

In our continuing investigation of leak of classified information to the news media by Daniel Ellsberg, we have uncovered information indicating that various members of the Washington bureau offices of the "Los Angeles Times," "Miami Herald" and "St. Louis Post Dispatch" traveled to Boston or Cambridge, Massachusetts, shortly after initial publication of the classified documents in "The New York Times" and just prior to appearance in the three listed papers of articles allegedly setting forth similar classified information allegedly furnished to the news media by Ellsberg.

Our investigation has revealed these visits to the Boston area could have resulted from unsolicited telephone calls from Boston to the Washington bureau offices involved, offering copies of the documents Ellsberg had previously furnished to "The New York Times." At least one of the newspapermen involved was alleged to have gone to Boston and to have received the "St. Louis Post Dispatch" copies of the documents after making a telephone call in Boston to an unknown telephone number and meeting an intermediary thereafter. Interviews in Boston and investigation in that city have revealed a complicated system of "drops" through which unidentified individuals in the area of Harvard Square in Cambridge were furnishing Xerox copies of the documents believed to have been held by Ellsberg to representatives of various newspapers who had traveled to Boston for the purpose of acquiring same.

The individuals involved are as follows:

[redacted] - "Los Angeles Times"
- "Los Angeles Times"
- ~~"Miami Herald"~~ "L.A. TIMES"
- "Miami Herald"
"St. Louis Post Dispatch"
C. - "St. Louis Post

Boston has requested Bureau authority for interviews of all of above news media personnel and, with the exception of [redacted] it is felt such interviews should be conducted to fully explore the degree of cooperation to be realized from these men. If such cooperation materializes, they could furnish substantive data revealing the system by which Ellsberg may have disseminated the classified documents involved in this matter. If uncooperative, the interviews would be a necessary prerequisite to suggesting to Department of Justice that the individual newsmen be subpoenaed to obtain the facts needed in our investigation.

There is no information in our files which would indicate the persons named could be expected to be totally uncooperative with the exception of [redacted] who has written articles derogatory of the Director and who was the recipient through the mails of copies of FBI documents stolen from the Media, Pennsylvani resident agency. No interview of [redacted] is being recommended in view of his demonstrated attitude in the past.

Department of Justice has imposed no restrictions on interviews of news media personnel in this matter with the exception that Neil and Susan Sheehan are the only such personnel not to be interviewed since they are potential defendants.

RECOMMENDATION:

That separate interviews of the news media personnel listed above be approved, with the exception of [redacted] If approved, attached airtel to WFO will be sent.

Re: Daniel Ellsberg

NOTE:

[redacted]. He previously advised us on a [redacted] basis that while he had no specific information as to how the [redacted] obtained copies of the "Pentagon papers" it was his conclusion that the material was possibly received on 6/26/71. He speculated copies of the document were delivered to a watchman or a guard and [redacted] was identified by him as possibly having knowledge of the material. When interviewed, [redacted] denied such knowledge but indicated she had other information "which was not of personal knowledge." Information furnished to the Assistant Attorney General in order that consideration might be given to issuance of a subpoena for Wright's appearance before the Federal Grand Jury.

[redacted] WASHINGTON, D.C. (WDC), REINTERVIEWED PUREUANT TO REQUEST OF DEPARTMENT AND BRIEF SUMMARY OF INFORMATION FURNISHED FOLLOWS. COMPLETE DETAILS WILL FOLLOW IN FD THREE ZERO TWO.

[redacted] RECALLED THAT IN A LETTER HE WROTE TO [redacted] RAND CORPORATION PRESIDENT, JULY FOURTEEN, SIXTYNINE, HE MENTIONED QUOTE FOR REASONS WHICH I SHALL GO INTO WHEN I SEE YOU, [redacted] HAS DECIDED AND [redacted] AND I HAVE AGREED TO RESTRICT THESE FULL SETS TO YOU ALONE FOR THE TIME BEING END QUOTE. ACCESS. ELLSBERG WAS THEN EMPLOYED BY RAND AND WAS WORKING ON A RAND PROJECT RE LESSONS LEARNED CONCERNING VIET NAM. [redacted] WAS AGAINST AUTHORIZING ELLSBERG HAVING ACCESS. [redacted]AD DOUBTS CONCERNING ELLSBERG'S DISCRIPTION BUT HE HAD NO BASIS FOR THESE DOUBTS. Discretion

LATER IN THE SPRING OF SIXTYNINE, [redacted] AGAIN SUGGESTED [redacted]HAT ELLSBERG BE GRANTED ACCESS. [redacted] ASKED HOW HE AND [redacted] COULD REFUSE ELLSBERG ACCESS INASMUCH AS ELLSBERG HAD WORKED ON THE VIETNAM TASK FORCE STUDY; THERE WAS NO PROOF THAT ELLSBERG WAS AN INDISCREET PERSON; AND THEIR REFUSAL TO GRANT HIM ACCESS WOULD CAUSE BAD RELATIONS WITH RAND. FOLLOWING THIS EITHER [redacted] OR [redacted] ELEPHONED [redacted] AND ADVISED THAT ELLSBERG COULD HAVE ACCESS TO THE THIRTY EIGHT VOLUME SET.

[redacted] STATED THAT HE, [redacted] AND [redacted] VISITED THE WDC OFFICE OF RAND ON OCTOBER NINETEEN, SEVENTY, FOR THE PURPOSE OF DETERMING WHETHER THE MATERIAL THEY HAD STORED THERE INCLUDED PERSONAL PAPERS OF [redacted]

[redacted] RECALLED SEEING ELLSBERG AT A TWO DAY CONFERENCE AT RAND IN WDC ON SEPTEMBER TWENTYFOUR AND TWENTYFIVE SEVENTY,

EARLIER, ELLSBERG HAD PREPARED A PAPER FOR DELIVERY AT A MEETING OF THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION IN LOS ANGELES, [redacted] CALIFORNIA, SEPTEMBER EIGHT-TWELVE, SEVENTY. WHEN [redacted] BECAME AWARE OF ELLSBERG'S PAPER HE WAS ANGRY BECAUSE HE NOTED THAT ELLSBERG HAD USED MATERIAL IN HIS PAPER WHICH HE HAD OBTAINED FROM AN EARLIER PAPER OF [redacted] AND HAD NOT GIVEN [redacted] RECOGNITION. [redacted] WAS ANGRY ALSO BECAUSE ELLSBERG'S PAPER CITED MATERIAL FROM THE VIETNAM TASK FORCE STUDY, WHICH MATERIAL HAD NOT BEEN DECLASSIFIED.

ON SEPTEMBER TWENTYFIVE, SEVENT[redacted] DISCUSSED THIS MATTER WITH ELLSBERG AND THEY PARTED ON QUOTE VERY UNFRIENDLY TERMS END QUOTE. LATER ELLSBERG REWROTE HIS PAPER FOR PUBLICATION AND DELATED FROM IT REFERENCES TO THE VIETNAM TASK FORCE STUDY AND ALSO PUBLICLY RECOGNIZED [redacted] EARLIER WORK.

[redacted] SAW ELLSBERG ON DECEMBER THREE, SEVENTY, AT A FACULTY SEMINAR AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY. ELLSBERG LEFT WHILE THE SEMINAR WAS STILL IN PROGRESS TO ATTEND A MEETING BEING HELD AT ANOTHER UNIVERSITY IN CONNECTION WITH AN ANTI-VIETNAM RALLY.

[redacted] COMMENTED UPON THE RECENT QUOTE LOOK END QUOTE MAGAZINE ARTICLE WHICH QUOTED ELLSBERG AS STATING THAT PRIOR TO HIS JOINING THE STUDY GROUP, HE HAD RECIEVED ASSURANCE THAT HE WOULD BE GIVEN ACCESS TO THE COMPLETE STUDY. [redacted] SAID THAT ELLSBERG'S STATEMENT WAS NONSENCE.

[redacted] STATED THAT HE WAS MISQUOTED IN THE QUOTE PARADE END QUOTE MAGAZINE ARTICLE OF AUGUST TWENTYTWO SEVENTYONE, AND [redacted] DESCRIBED THE ARTICLE AS BEING INACCURATE.

[redacted] STATED HE NEVER REMOVED ANY DOCUMENTS FROM DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE (DOD) FOR HIS OWN USE AND HE DOES NOT HAVE ANY PAPERS OR DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THE STUDY IN HIS POSSESSOSSESSION. [redacted] NEVER DID HAVE ANY INTENTION OF WRITING A BOOK, USING VIETNAM TASK FORCE STUDY MATERIAL.

SUBJECT: MC LEK
SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS OFFICE (SIO)

To note, for information, continued desire on part of officials at White House in receipt of weekly summary in instant matter and to seek approval for adjustment of the scheduled submission of that summary believed desirable in the interest of economy of operation.

Background:

H. R. Haldeman, Assistant to the President, called the Director on 7/6/71 noting that the President had asked Haldeman to see if the Director could get over to him a current progress report on investigation of personnel of "The New York Times" involved in obtaining the classified documents allegedly taken by Ellsberg in instant matter. A summary letter was furnished to Haldeman the same date and we have been supplying him with a copy of the weekly summary since that date.

On 7/29/71, the President wrote to the Director stating that he had directed Egil Krogh, Jr., Deputy Assistant to the President for Domestic Affairs, to examine in depth the circumstances of the many recent disclosures of "Top Secret" and other sensitive material to the public. The President asked the Director to furnish Krogh with a comprehensive background paper on Ellsberg. The desired memorandum was furnished to Krogh on 8/3/71 and he has been furnished the weekly summary on a continuing basis in view of the responsibilities imposed on him by the President in the area of unauthorized leaks.

When delivering the weekly memorandum yesterday to the offices of Haldeman and Krogh, our Liaison Agent with the White House was advised that both officials continue to evidence extreme interest in our investigation of unauthorized leaks and have expressed the desire that they wish to continue to be furnished a weekly summary of the nature we have furnished to them in the past, feeling that it is vital to their understanding of the problems and necessary for their fulfillment of the duties imposed on them by the President.

The following investigation was conducted at New York in connection with individuals who attended an affair [redacted] on 8/6/71, during which affair DANIEL ELLSBERG reportedly made a speech:

[redacted] He stated that he has no knowledge of DANIEL ELLSBERG and has never been in the State of Massachusetts in his life. He noted that he did not lend his automobile to anyone in August, 1971. It would appear that the license plate number originally supplied was incorrectly listed.

(2) [redacted], NYC, advised that he and his wife, [redacted] did attend the above-described function. [redacted] noted that he did not know anyone at the gathering, nor could he recall the identities of anyone who attended, other than ELLSBERG. He recalled that ELLSBERG did make a speech concerning the involvement of the United States in South Vietnam, but that as best as he could recall, ELLSBERG did not make any reference to the so-called "Pentagon Papers".

[redacted] advised that he did attend the above-mentioned affair at the home of [redacted] He recalled that DANIEL ELLSBERG gave a history of his life. He noted how he changed from being a "hawk" to a "dove" as a result of his acquaintanceship with Quakers and his realization that the Quaker approach, "there is no enemy", is true. The assumption he made as a result of hearing ELLSBERG was that it was because of his philosophical change of view that he made the "Pentagon Papers" public and not for monetary gain. ELLSBERG did not make any statement as to how he obtained the "Pentagon Papers" or the method by which he made them public. [redacted] was unable to identify anyone else in attendance at the meeting.

[redacted] while admitting that he attended the affair at [redacted] home, declined to furnish any information.

(S) [redacted] declined to be interviewed concerning his attendance at the affair given by [redacted]

[redacted] advised [redacted] affair at the home of [redacted] He noted that they received a typewritten communication inviting him to the affair. He described the affair as one of a number that are held during the summer months that he attends, in view of the fact that most of these affairs are attended by artists and professional people. He advised he, himself, is a [redacted] He also indicated he was attracted by the fact that the invitation noted that Dr. ELLSBERG would speak. [redacted] advised that upon arriving at the affair, he noted about 150 people in attendance. He advised he heard Dr. ELLSBERG speak, but that he and his wife were en route to a dinner party and could not stay for any of the other speakers. It was his understanding that after arriving that the affair was being held to raise funds, and he mentioned that people associated with the BERRIGANs were also scheduled to speak. He advised he did not recognize any of the people in attendance.

Concerning Dr. ELLSBERG, he noted that ELLSBERG explained the fact that he had been a "hawk" on the Vietnam war, and he explained his change from this position to that of "dove". He did not specifically mention how he obtained the so-called "Pentagon Papers" or how he furnished them for publication. He did admit that he had made them public, and explained that he had first attempted to furnish them to government officials, including Senator FULBRIGHT. When these individuals did not make them public, ELLSBERG stated he felt that he had a duty to his country to see that the American people were made aware of the contents of the "Pentagon Papers". He indicated he was willing to go to jail for what he had done.

(7) [redacted] indicated that he did attend the affair at [redacted]'s home in [redacted] Massachusetts. He described this gathering as a fund-raising affair to assist the BERRIGAN brothers. He indicated that it was his recollection that ELLSBERG never mentioned the "Pentagon Papers" during his speech.

(8) [redacted] who resides at [redacted] advised that he himself, did not attend the affair at the home of [redacted] He noted that his wife did attend this affair. [redacted] who is in his late 70's, advised that his wife is not well and that he did not wish to have her interviewed concerning this matter. He indicated he would question her himself, and furnish any information she recalled concerning her attendance at this affair. When recontacted, [redacted] advised that all his wife could recall concerning ELLSBERG was that he spoke and he described his background, mentioning the fact that he had been associated with the Rand Corporation. She also recalled that the thrust of his speech was basically the reasons he felt he had to make the "Pentagon Papers" public. [redacted] noted that he and his wife did not wish to identify the persons known to them who were in attendance at this affair.

In attempting to locate [redacted] concerning her attendance at the affair in Professor [redacted] the NYO ascertained that in addition to being Vice President of the New York-Harrisburg Defense Committee, she is, at the present time, employed on a full-time basis with this Defense Committee. It is noted that [redacted] Inasmuch as investigation has indicated that the affair at the home of [redacted] was being primarily held to raise funds for the BERRIGANs, it is the opinion of the NYO that an interview with [redacted] would be unproductive, especially since the comments of other individuals at the affair have established that ELLSBERG made no admissions as to how he obtained the "Pentagon Papers" or disseminated them to the press. It would appear that he made the same type of speech on 8/6/71 that he has repeated in public on subsequent occasions.
